We are authorized to announce JOHN H. KEITH as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Prosecuting Attorney of Iron County, subject to the action of the voters at the Primary Election, August 1st.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

This is the longest day of the year.

Saw you ever so quiet a primary campaign?

Just two weeks until the 4th of July. Are you ready?

Rev. Dr. Riggs filled the pulpit of the Baptist church at Steelville Sunday.

Found—Sunday June 11th, at Baptist Church, a ring. Inquire at this office.

The Methodist Sunday School had a picnic on the rocks at Graniteville last Wednesday.

A glorious rain Monday afternoon and night. But some more would be most acceptable.

Recorder Hawkins Monday issued a marriage license to Ira Resher and Ella Inman of Annapolis.

Order a case of our assorted flavors, Purity Soda Water, and see how the whole family enjoy it.—Adv.

J. R. Baldwin, local dealer, sold a Maxwell touring car to Wm. R. Hall, of Graniteville, the past week.

The Arcadia Valley and Poplar Bluff teams will play ball at National Park Desloge next Sunday afternoon.

A hay ride and a swimming party at Lake Killarney were among the diversions last Wednesday evening.

The picnic near Joe Selinger's on Crane Pond last Saturday was largely attended and everybody had a good time.

The ice man's season was a little slow in arriving, but it came with a vengeance when it did put in an appearance.

The Arcadia Valley Ball Team was almost smashed to pieces last Sunday, the score being 18 to 4. Better luck next time.

The Graniteville nine and Ironton All Stars, colored, will cross bats at Fletcher's Field Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

For Sale—Four milk cows, two Jersey and two half Jersey and half Holstein. J. ARTHUR FRANCIS, Ironton, Mo.

Nature intended that you should eat what you want. You can do it if you take Tanlac. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.—Adv.

Ironton and Bismarck played ball in Fletcher's field Sunday. Ironton won by a score of 5 to 4. Ironton and Elvins play at Bellevue next Sunday.

The law requiring tail lights on automobiles is paid little or no attention in this vicinity. Obey the law or repeat it.

For Rent—My store and dwelling on Main street. Good stand for Grocery, Restaurant and rooming house. J. A. FRANCIS, Ironton, Mo.

County court will meet in adjourned term July 1st when the judges of election primary will be chosen and other important matters disposed of.

It is now stated that the troops that were to have been at the rifle range in May will be here in September. One report is that 800 soldiers will come.

George Begley of Poplar Bluff was an Ironton visitor last Wednesday. Mr. Begley was here in an endeavor to dispose of some of his real estate in this vicinity.

Junior Hawkins had one of his feet quite badly hurt by a hayrake last Saturday morning when he and Russell were putting up hay. Painful but not serious, it is hoped.

The work on the granite spawl structure, near the station, continues. The builder, who controls the Schneider quarries, says his chief object in putting the house there, is to advertise the stone from his quarry.

The infant daughter, Golda Irene, of Claude Tinker and wife, was buried at Trolinger's grave yard, June 10th. Services by Rev. W. L. Cofer, reading Mathew 13:28, 17:9, Revelations 14.

One of Arcadia's citizens imbibed too freely of "White Mule" last Wednesday afternoon and it took about the entire population to subdue him. Finally a warrant was applied for and the recalcitrant brought over to the county bastille.

J. A. Francis, who has been engaged in the mercantile business in Ironton since last September, will move to his saw mill, three miles south of Belgrade in Washington county, next month. Mr. Francis offers his store and dwelling in Ironton for rent.

Train No. 3 set out two coaches here, loaded with members of the Y. W. C. A., St. Louis, who will spend a week on Arcadia Heights. There are in all about 150 visitors on the hill. We were misinformed a couple of weeks since when we stated 300 visitors were expected.

J. Arthur Love, superintendent of the public school at Queen City, Mo., arrived in Flat River Tuesday to spend the remainder of the week visiting his mother, Mrs. R. C. Love. He had an operation for appendicitis a little more than three weeks ago, at Grims' hospital in Kirksville.—Flat River News.

Dewey J. Childers, the S. D. A. Speaker, will speak at the Cedar Bluff School House, about three and a half miles west of Ironton, next Sunday night at 7:30 P. M., June 25th. His subject will be "What is the real meaning of an enforced National Sunday Blue Law." Invitation extended to the public.

Alfred Hale writes from Casper, Wyoming: "I am feeling better than I have in many years and am having an interesting visit here. I receive the REGISTER Friday evening so I get the home news quickly. Weather has been very severe, but is beautiful now. Everything much later than in Missouri and season very short."

Attention is called to the advertisement of H. L. Rieke, undertaker, in this issue of the REGISTER. Herman has recently fitted up a funeral parlor in connection with his establishment and is prepared to give better and more satisfactory service than ever before. He solicits the patronage of those who are so unfortunate as to need his services.

The drive from Ironton to Farmington, after you get past the rough places about Middlebrook, is certainly a delight and pleasure. From Iron Mountain it is like a dream, you glide along as in the air. With her most enviable reputation for good roads we can not understand how our sister county of St. Francois can longer neglect the road at Middlebrook.

Something like six weeks ago a party giving his name as Chas. Mayes and representing himself to be clerk of the New Church at Pilot Knob, came into our office and ordered a small job of printing, saying that he would call for same in two days. The printing is here waiting for him. At the same time we are becoming somewhat anxious as to the $1.50 promised us for the work. Come on, Bro. Mayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donnelly, accompanied by their son, Edward, and their niece, Willye Mae Shular, motored from Collinsville, Ill., to Marble Creek, via Arcadia, last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly are old Arcadians, but for the last ten years Mr. Donnelly has been connected with the St. Louis Lead Smelter and Refining Co. at Collinsville, Ill. While here they are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shular. Mrs. Donnelly is a sister of Mrs. Shular.

Bismarck had a crimp put into their winning streak last Sunday when they lost to Annapolis by the score of 14 to 9. In the first part of the game it looked as if our boys had the game safely tucked away, as up to the sixth inning they were leading by the score of 6 to 1. Barnes, the Bismarck pitcher, had an off day, and was hit hard, although up to the sixth inning Annapolis only secured four hits, but fireworks broke loose in the sixth, when six hits and some awful losses fielding allowed six Annapolis runners to cross the plate.—Bismarck Gazette.

Dr. Killalee of the Alexian Bros. Hospital will become a R. R. surgeon. He departed from St. Louis for the east the first week in June, where he goes on the Pennsylvania R. R. He has served two years under some of the best surgeons in St. Louis in the various hospitals. He is a graduate Pharmacist as well as M. D. and a young man of sterling qualities. His many Colleagues wish him success. He was born at Middlebrook, Mo., about 29 years ago, where his parents resided for a time, before they moved to St. Louis.

It is stated that the Republicans of a certain township in the county have announced that in case the Democrats challenge the votes of well known Republicans if they attempt to participate in the Democratic primary, the Republicans will, in retaliation, challenge the vote of every Democrat who presents himself at the primary. That is retaliation with a big R, but is it fair, is it decent, is it honorable? Of course, it is not, and we don't believe it can be done. Where a man's party affiliations are well known, and above question, the judges have no right to put him under oath. That is common sense and justice and it should be the law, if it isn't.

Farmington News: "V. M. Lavery, who has been superintendent of the Iron Mountain Co., at Iron Mountain, since active mining was begun there again about two years ago, resigned a few days ago, his resignation to become effective June 15th, to accept a position with new interests who are developing an iron mining property in Wayne county, near Williamsville. Mr. and Mrs. Lavery are very fine people and we regret to see them leave our community. W. T. May, who has been assistant superintendent at Iron Mountain, will succeed Mr. Lavery. We wish him and his company continued success under the new arrangement. The company is planning soon to erect a larger mill at Iron Mountain for the crushing and better separation of ore."

Flat River News of last week: "On Tuesday evening, June 5, a meeting of those interested in procuring a fast semi-professional baseball team for the south end of the Lead Belt was held and an organization started which resulted in the forming of a stock company to finance the undertaking. The meeting was held in the office of the St. Louis Smelting & Refining Works of National Lead Company from which point those in attendance journeyed to the Y. M. C. A. in Flat River and were extended the use of the floor at a meeting of the Flat River Chamber of Commerce there in session. The proposed movement met with immediate approval throughout the district and most gratifying results have been brought about." * * "Mr. E. E. Evans, of Ironton, who has been chosen to lead the club as business manager, will have full and complete charge of the undertaking to select and put before the public a fast enough team to meet them all. Mr. Evans is a base ball man of long years of experience and is fully capable of carrying through the successful organization and management of such a club."

From coast to coast Tanlac is known and honored and millions have taken it and pronounced it the greatest medicine of all times. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.—Adv.

Humoresque Is

THE song in a mother's heart made visible; the dream of a mother's life come true. A melody of love and tears and laughter, played silently on the screen. See it at the Academy Theatre next Tuesday.

Arcadia College Notes.

Since the Lenten Season, the College Auditorium has been the scene of many an instructive and entertaining program. But the auditorium was forgotten for just one occasion when the Students of Shakespeare led a large audience, on Wednesday the fourteenth of June, to the College Park, where amid the stately trees and variety of flowers, representing the Forest of Arden, they reproduced, in real professional fashion, Shakespeare's "As You Like It."

The choice of a stage could not have been happier for players and audience alike. The open-air-theatre idea is becoming more popular, and to witness a play of the forest on a warm night in June, under the sky, amid trees and shrubs, seemed to be the logical thing. The out-of-door production of "As You Like It" was appreciated by those present, for they heard each line of the play distinctly, and with the help of the lighting effect, all could see the players and their beautiful costumes as well as they might have been seen on any stage. And to these features were added the rendition of some very select musical numbers by the Conservatory Department, which, with the cool June breezes of an Arcadia evening, made the occasion one long to be remembered.

Miss Milly Gay Schultz as Rosalind, acted quite naturally and was perfectly at home in the scenes that led her ever nearer to her Orlando. The difficult part of the over-ardent lover was well portrayed by Miss Theo Monti, who disguised her sex gracefully and gave her whole self to the wooing of Rosalind. Emma Ogilvie was the good hearted pal in Celia and deserved, by her unassuming friendliness for her cousin, the generous applause that was given her. The wit and humor of the play was furnished, in word and act, by the clown, Touchstone, in which role Miss Agnes Mackey kept all interested and happy. Other players who deserve special mention were Mary Coon as Frederick, Thelma Marshall as the philosopher, Jacques, and Marie Beis as the old servant, Adam. The other members likewise acted their parts well. These players were: Oliver, Selma Sewald; Banished Duke, Louise Bauer; Charles the Wrestler, Edith Mullen; Jacques de Boys, Bonnie Stooking; Corin, Kathryn Quinn; Sylvius, Otie Linn; William, Annabelle Cunningham; Hymen, Ruby Jones; Phoebe, Marie Sanders; Audrey, Charlotte Stack; Amiens, E. Tucker; Louis, G. Montgomery; Enstice, M. Decker; and LaBeau, N. Chance.

"I have sold over 2,000 bottles of Tanlac and have never had a dissatisfied customer," writes Smiser's Drug Store, Columbia, Tenn. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.—Adv.
